Biggest Wedding Fayre ever at Lydiard House

Despite being mid-winter, the sun shone for the 146 budding brides who visited latest Wedding Fayre held at Lydiard House on Sunday 13th January. “It was our most successful Wedding Fayre ever,” commented Lydiard House’s event coordinator Sophie Mayes. “Not only did we have a record attendance on the day, but five of the prospective brides were so impressed with Lydiard House they booked their own wedding day on the spot.”

The Civil Ceremony and Reception room were set out especially for the day, so all potential brides could experience the atmosphere of a wedding at a stately home set in acres of beautiful landscaped gardens and imagine how their own wedding will look on the big day. It also gave them the opportunity to meet and chat to Sophie, Liz and the team who were offering tours, quotes and their expert advice throughout the day.

There was a full range of wedding services on display giving helpful advice including photographers, dressmakers, wedding cake specialists, chair covers, florists, cars, jewellers.

There was even a poet on hand whose creative skills could add a personal touch to speeches and toasts.

Sophie added, “Every bride wants their wedding day to be very special so we’re here to give it that personal touch and make sure that everything goes according to plan. We make sure that the day will go smoothly so the bride, groom and all the guests can really enjoy a day they will never forget.”
