

Most successful ever Wedding Fayre at Chartridge

Despite nine other Wedding events locally, over 150 visitors including 49 brides-to-be, many of them new faces, attended the Wedding Fayre held at Chartridge Lodge and Conference Centre recently. There was a real buzz throughout the day, with many of the visitors commenting that this was the best and most professional Wedding Fayre they had been to.

In addition to the usual comprehensive range of displays of wedding services including cars, cakes, flowers, chair covers and photographers, a harpist and a wedding singer were on hand to provide a delightful musical background to the event.

The fashion show displaying the latest bridal gowns is always very popular with all the brides-to-be and their mums, but this year Chartridge visitors were treated to two shows. Not only did the models do a superb job on the catwalk, but the disco background and subtle lighting show added real atmosphere to this highlight of the day.

The Civil Ceremony and Wedding Breakfast Rooms were set out specially for the day, giving all prospective brides a real flavour of how their own wedding would look at a stately home set in acres of beautiful landscaped gardens. This together with the friendly and helpful staff was reflected by eight confirmed bookings and a further four reserved dates taken on the day for brides who want to hold their wedding at Chartridge.

The experienced Chartridge wedding and events team, led by Lisa Booth, were on hand during the day to give every potential bride advice and guidance on how to ensure their special day would be a success.

Lisa commented, "Every bride wants their wedding day to be special, and we have a wealth of experience managing every style of wedding from small intimate ceremonies to the most lavish with hundreds of guests. We're here to eliminate all the worries and make sure the bride, groom and all the guests can look forward to a truly memorable day."
