

Finance wizards finally scoop George Hay Jubilee Shield

Stevenage-based Richmond House Financial Services (RHG) demonstrated that quality outshines quantity when they claimed a resounding victory at the George Hay Jubilee Quiz which was held at John O' Gaunt golf club this week. Despite fielding a team of only five players, the canny financial advisers were able to resist the challenges from nine other teams of local professionals scoring a record-breaking 97 points. Previous multiple winners Woodfines LLP were nudged into second place with Huntingdon-based surveyors Barker Storey Matthews coming a close third.

This is the 20th year that quizmaster, George Hay partner Barry Jefferd and his wife Susan have masterminded the annual quiz and tested the best local professional minds by devising a plethora of fiendish questions that would have been a credit to 'Mastermind'.

Accepting the Jubilee Shield, RHG's managing director Paul Beasley commented, "We always look forward to this special event and have been lusting after the trophy for the last 10 years. We managed to be the bridesmaid on many occasions, so we are relieved to finally get our hands on this coveted trophy. Having now tasted victory I hope we don't have to wait another 10 years before the RHG name is engraved on it once more."
