

Hitchin Priory Wedding Fayre a resounding success

The sun was certainly shining when more than 400 visitors attended the Hitchin Priory Wedding Fayre making this the busiest Wedding event ever held at the historic venue. It was even more remarkable as several other wedding fayres were being held locally on the same day.

A record 34 wedding specialists were on hand, giving advice and assistance to the many budding brides who were planning for their big day. As well as the regular exhibitors including photographers, florists, cake specialists, bridal fashion, hairdressing and make up experts, a beautifully prepared horse and carriage, and a superb Beauford stretch limo were on show for brides who want to arrive in style.

A spray tanner was on hand demonstrating how, despite our gloomy British summers, every bride can glow on her special day, while a flute and harp duo gave a truly romantic flavour to the event. More unusual were Guest Factor and Smiley Booths demonstrating how guests can leave a video record of their lasting tributes and congratulations to the happy couple.

The Civil Ceremony and Reception room were set out especially for the day, so all potential brides could experience the atmosphere of a wedding at a stately home set in acres of beautiful landscaped gardens and imagine how their own wedding will look. It also gave them the opportunity to meet and chat to Sarah, Jocelyn and the team who were offering tours, quotes and their expert advice throughout the day.

Event Coordinator Jocelyn Harrold commented, "It was our most successful Wedding Fayre ever. Not only did we have a record attendance, but we were booked for several personal show rounds during the next few weeks. Several prospective brides have already reserved dates for their wedding, and one bride confirmed her wedding booking on the day.”

Jocelyn added, “The success of the day was underlined by many of the exhibitors commenting that it was one of the busiest events they had attended and that they definitely wanted to be at the next Hitchin Priory Wedding Fayre. Our next event will probably be in the autumn when we hope to have even more potential brides attending.”
